So sorry to hear of your loss. Dave was a larger than life kinda guy. We thought so much of him and his wonderful family. Nothing really heals a loss like this, but hopefully sitting around, sharing fond memories will help you find you some comfort and ease the pain.

“Ginger, Lisa and Jenna, I was so very, very sorry to learn of Dave's passing. We have such fond memories of the kids growing up together in our wonderful neighborhood with the summer picnics, the fall leaf-raking experiences, the shared joys of owning Wheaten Terriers, and the memories of all those high school homecoming "tp" experiences! You were all wonderful neighbors during those 30+ years. Please know that Mike, David, Aaron and I send out deepest sympathies to each of you. Dave and your family will always hold a special place in our hearts. Our love and peace to each of you.

“ Ginger & family: I am sorry to hear that David passed away. I only met him a couple of times years ago. I don't know if you remember me but we used to pick on each other at Freeman Shoe. Those were the good times. I now live in Tennessee where my younger daughter & her family live. I do like it.

My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family as you go through these rough times. Remember all the good times and may God be with you all.

“ I first met Dave and Ginger 40 years ago when they built their home a few doors away from ours. Over time our children became friends and played together. I admired Dave for not only his work ethic, but his willingness to help his neighbors, his straight to the point observations and the passion he had for his family, home and hobbies. On a cold and rainy fall evening the rain was lashing the front of our home and living room windows. Dave came to the outside of our home to stop the rain from flowing in under the sill into the house! He not only knew what to do, he had the supplies to do it! He loved his cars, and It always made me a little nervous when he would park his new yellow corvette in the street...I made sure to stay left, as I approached the stop sign, making sure not to be too close. I will miss my almost daily “seeing” Dave and the wave he would always give as I rounded the corner. I believe Dave’s spirit will still be there watching over his family and home he loved so much. Gone far too soon, but he has left a legacy that I know his beautiful wife Ginger, and daughter’s Lisa, and Jenna will be comforted by and carry forward.

“David Campfield was one of a kind. He was the hardest working man in the neighborhood for forty years. Neither snow, sleet, storms, tornadoes, or microbursts could keep Dave from his garage. The yard was uniformly manicured with exact precision. As kids, he would always remind us when it was “time to close up shop.” He also gave well heeded advice to the girls “to settle down” when necessary. I always knew it was really for me and I translated it to mean “go home.” He was such a role model of a strong work ethic, a family man, and a guy never satisfied with mediocrity. He and Ginger raised a beautiful family and I got a ringside seat my entire life. I’ve poked fun at his famous phrase since adolescence: “If it ain’t at Farm & Fleet, you don’t need it.” Although that grew to include Fleet Farm too, it wasn’t until some years back when it hit me; he was damn right! I will miss seeing Dave in the neighborhood. I mourn the loss of Lisa and Jenna’s dear dad. I pray that Ginger and the entire family find peace in that Dave lived a life well done. He is sorely missed and the tears will continue for now. The solace is that somewhere up there he’ll now be an angel who simply knew when it was his time to “settle down” and come home. We love the Campfields like family. May the memories keep you close for now until eternity. Godspeed, Dave.

“We knew Mr. Campfield mostly as a loving grandpa to our sweet friends Annabelle and Corgan. We loved our chats when he visited Overland Park. He saved us on home repair many times. My absolute favorite was when he saw my husband on a ladder trying to fix wood rot around windows. He was alarmed that he was doing it all wrong and asked his darling daughter, Lisa if it would be alright to offer advice. YES!! Oh my goodness, we were using all of the wrong product and “fixing it” all wrong. He stopped by and talked for a very long time and helped us understand how to do it correctly in such a fatherly way. He was so giving and loved to stay busy. We genuinely enjoyed talks and wisdom he passed on. He passed on this legacy to his amazing daughter Lisa and we already see it in his grandchildren. Sending you all tons of love during this time. He will be greatly missed.

“David was such a hard worker, good friend great dad and grandpa-I was so proud to call him my friend. I’ll always remember the New Year’s Eve parties at his house and the ride my grandson, Brayden, took in his black Cadillac-thought he was in the bat mobile 🐬
Gods blessings to he is family-rest in peace.

Dave was a true gentleman, friendly, always had a smile. He was a straight shooter and a skilled tradesman. I met Dave when he worked the Beloit Mall enclosure many many years ago. The world lost a special man. Sincere condolences to Ginger and family.

David was a true friend and neighbor. Full of fun, always with a smile, and there when you needed him. Our memories of our Christmas progressive dinners, Badger games, best ball golf tournaments, the all-nighters with the shop vacs, etc., etc. Who could forget them? And David was always a big part of it. He helped make our 10 years in Beloit sweet. You will never be forgotten friend!
