“ Dear Brian and Sara:

We wanted to extend our condolences to you at this sad time. I knew your father quite well (at least as our work was concerned) from the time we spent in the Chicago District choir and his work as technical director for the district services. Not only was he a true and faithful servant of God but he also was a real innovator when it came to leading our church into the electronic age. I was always fascinated by the way he knew every wire, nut and bolt of his operation. It's hard not to think of him every time I see a TV. screen hanging on the wall or a camera pointed at the altar. Those things are there today because of the pioneering work he did.

However we do not forget that he was a priest, a rector, an organist and counselor for our members. He did all those things and did them well. For all this and more I am sure that he has earned a great blessing in eternity. Once again, please accept our sympathies and pass them on to your children. Sincerely,

Harold and Sandi Wegner

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with Ed, Mrs. Nupnau and the family. I worked with Ed for many years at McCleary Ind. Now Axiom Foods in South Beloit. My wife did also. Just a tireless worker in the kingdom of God. And a fine person. Always going but always willing to stop for a brief chat or advice on any electrical question you can imagine. Ed could fix anything and it was impressive that he was able to get out of the food production demands and start his own video company and keep going. He brought the family into that business and was also a full time minister. Nothing but positive thoughts come to mind and we look forward to seeing Ed and Mrs. Nupnau at some future time. Sincerely-Nick and Judy (Steuck) McCleary.

“ To the Nupnau family. Linda & I send our heartfelt and sincerest condolences. We always enjoyed working with Ed on the church broadcasts out of Kitchener Central, during those times, he taught a number of us a lot. Ed and Nancy will always have a very special place in our hearts. One of his most known sayings, "I just drive the bus" , when he did so much more, maybe he is driving a bus to yonder shore? You are in our thoughts and prayers, Linda & Stanley Eckstein
