“ Loren, you will be missed but not forgotten because that silly grin was a gift from Grandma Brooks and passed around in the Brooks family. I think in spite of your challenges that grin made you feel like you were still in the game. Uncle Jim was very much like that too until the end. The Lord gives us some mysterious tools to work with but you used them as we all have to do. Happy Easter!

“ I remember the joy Loren had spending time with family. Especially the trips up to Steven's point when I was a kid. Loren loved to play cards and listen to his record collection. Loren also enjoyed the the holidays and I remember a Christmas when he particularly enjoyed watching me open a giant box that had smaller and smaller boxes wrapped in it that he had put a Packers pennant in. Family gatherings won't be the same without Loren to remind us to always take joy in those occasions. Love you uncle.
