“ Where to begin....I have a lot of memories of Todd from our younger days; camping at Hickory Hills, softball on the People's Church junior varsity team, hunting in Richland Center, Super Bowl parties at his house, football games in the street in front of Mel and Sandy's, 4th of July fireworks and that's only naming a few of the memories. I'm very sorry that we didn't keep in touch as much later on in our lives. You will be forever in my heart. My thoughts and prayers are with Sue and Cassidy, Mel and Sandy and Terry.

“ To the Namminga Family, Nancy and I are so sorry for your loss. My favorite memories, but even more so for Nancy, was when Todd played Mr. Beaver and Nancy Mrs. Beaver in the Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe the People's Covenant Church. Nancy never knew when Todd might decide to go "off script" just to trip her up. What great days and memories!

Blessings in the midst of it all.

“ I remember Todd as a bold, believing Christian. He had deep love for his whole family, for God, church family and FL getaway. I remember working on adult & kids productions with him. He was a great leader, director and actor. Passionate. Been to a few gatherings he hosted. Loved to serve. Todd could be intimidating at first, but had a very genuine, caring heart once you knew him. He'd do anything for anyone, or at least make it happen if there was a need. He will be greatly missed. Prayers for the family. Jill

“ To my dear friend I'm going to miss you so much we wanted to do thing together, but my health would always get in the way. When we would talk on the phone it would be hours. We talked about guns, dogs, life, and of course our wives. Todd loves her so much, and Cassidy could do no wrong. Todd I could go on forever talking about you but I must say good bye until we meet again my brother I love you.

“ Todd and I hadn't seen each other in decades but I always enjoyed talking with him on Facebook. We didn't agree politically for sure, but always had a cordial conversation and talked about work and family. He was a big hearted family man sure gave more to this world than he took.
